

Educational Workshop on High Impact Philanthropy: Focus on Education and Health

Education Panel Speaker: Adele Tay Fabrikant

Adele Tay Fabrikant, is Managing Director, Northeast Region, Generation Schools. Ms. Fabrikant builds upon her background as a teacher, school leader, and director of curriculum and instruction in her work at Generation Schools. She was the founding principal of a public transfer high school for 200 over age and under credited youth that earned a Well Developed on a 2008-2009 School Quality Review. At Generation Schools, she recruits school leaders for whole school and systemic reform model implementation as part of the organization's new school development effort, and develop school proposals incorporating systemic and innovative instructional and operational strategies. Ms. Fabrikant also provides hands-on support to existing schools on the design and implementation of Generation Schools' model. She earned a bachelor's degree in environmental design from the University of Colorado at Boulder, a master's degree from Columbia University's Teacher College, where she is a doctoral candidate with a focus on education leadership practice.
